

Preservation of Community Culture in To Kwa Wan

October 2015 to July 2016

After decent training, photography workshops and community visits, the young participants, together with the kaifongs in To Kwa Wan, discovered interesting stories in the community. They published an oral history book as well as a map of local shops, and provided guided tours in order for more people to explore the multi-faceted To Kwa Wan.

