

Twist balloon in the color Central & Western community

July 2018 – July 2019

After attending training workshops, a group of retirees became outstanding balloon art ambassadors who toured to schools and elderly centres to share the skills and joy of balloon art. While spreading positive energy to the Central and Western community, the programme boosted the elderly ambassadors' self-esteem through lifelong learning.

